Here are a couple of things....

- 1) In looking over the date list, I wanted to make sure you understand some things:
  - a. Although this is a pretty good list of dates, it is not the final word. Concerts, contests, etc that are listed are not likely to change, but some things may be added. Another list will be available at band camp and will be constantly updated on the website.
  - b. Items marked (T) are TENTATIVE.
  - c. All the basketball games are marked (T). We will probably do 4 of those games. I don't have a schedule at this time.
- 2) Uniform Checkout will be done during band camp
- 3) If you (and your parents) have NOT gotten an email from me this past Monday, please send me your current address. jmeiller@norman.k12.ok.us
- 4) I'd like to keep a contact list of parents, so please forward your parents' preferred email addresses also.

Hope your summer is cookin'!
